“You make a living by what you get. You make a life by what you give.”

~Winston Churchill

The enduring words of the late British Prime Minister serve as the cornerstone for the Sixth Pillar of Primerus™ – Community Service.

Volunteerism gives life meaning and is symbolic of service above self, producing untold social, career, and personal benefits. It also provides a sense of community and is emblematic of a desire to be kind, generous, and virtuous in every act and deed.

As members of the legal profession, we have a social responsibility to give back to our community, to make significant and continuing contributions for the betterment of society. It will promote a sense of purpose and will create a legacy of care and compassion to be admired and followed.
